DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-58 are pending.

Claims renumbered

1. The claims filed are not in numbered consecutively and there are two (2) claim 16s. The second claim has been renumbered claim 17 and each subsequent claim numbered consecutively from 17, i.e., 16-57 are 17-58, for this Office Action. Applicants should note said change and should present a new claim listing to correct the claim numbering as well as the related dependency in response to this Office Action.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-20, drawn to a composition for detackifying paint in an aqueous system, classified in class 252, subclass 180.
- II. Claims 21-36, drawn to a paint composition, classified in class 524, subclass 800.
- III. Claims 37-58, drawn to a method of making a polyarylamine polymer, classified in class 528, subclass 243.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

3. Inventions of Groups I or II and Group III are somewhat related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process can be used to make just the polymer and does not require the reaction be performed in aqueous solution.

4. Inventions of Groups I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation, different functions, and different effects since the Group I compositions may be employed as precipitating agents or emulsion breakers and further require flocculants and/or coagulants that are not required in Group II, which does require a suspension of paint. The different modes of operation, different functions, and different effects would result from at least the incorporation of the flocculants and/or coagulants required in Group I and the alternative uses for said Group I compositions that do not require a suspension of paint.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Election of Species

7. Claims 1-58 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising the (1) arylamine, (2) the aldehyde, (3)(regarding Group I) the flocculant and/or coagulant. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed. A single species means a single compound for each of (1), (2), and if Group I is elected, also an election of a single compound or single mixture for (3). Said election may be an exemplified species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

8. A telephone call was made to Charles E. Dunlap on December 6, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
